Novabase Consulting (Portugal)

Summer Internship as an Experience Designer, included doing Usability evaluations, Information Architecture Redesign, Creating wireframes and Interactive prototypes.

Capstone Project for the
Masters in Human-Computer Interaction - 2014
Wow!Systems (Portugal)

During this 8-month long project my team and I designed a mobile app to promote mental well-being. Project Lead for the first semester, during which we did extensive research, using methods such as Expert Interviews, Competitive Analysis, Literature Review and Survey, and a Concept Probe. Interaction Design Lead for the second semester, involved in conducting the design process and user testing sessions, from Lo-Fi paper prototypes to Hi-Fi interactive digital prototypes.
